The 12 Dogs of Christmas - $15

This is a heartwarming holiday "tail" of a 12-year-old girl who brings together a small town with her love for dogs during the Depression. The film is based on a novel written by young author Emma Kragen. Both the book and DVD are ideal for grade-school children.

Why we love it:
Over 100 cute canines appear in the DVD version.

Where to find it:

Your Dog Companion - $19.95 each, $39.95 for set (Canadian dollars)

The DVDs in this four-disc series were created by a dog behaviorist and designed to lessen the separation anxiety, loneliness and boredom associated with leaving dogs alone. They're also designed to help reduce hypersensitivity to noises such as thunder, doorbells and knocking, sirens and fireworks.

Why we love it:
The videos are filmed from a dog's perspective, so your pooch will feel like she's running at the dog park, chasing rabbits and having a good ol' time.
